Service is our motto

MARGADARSHI, registered under the Societies Act, was founded in 1988 by a group of people with disabilities in Bangalore, India, primarily to address physical, sociological and economical problems of the disabled community. Margadarshi's main objectives are:

1. To foster friendship within the disabled community and render mutual assistance.
2. To promote welfare activities like providing shelter, calipers, wheelchairs and medical assistance.
3. To involve disabled people in sports, social and cultural activities which help them to achieve excellence, integration and acceptance in the society..

WE NEED YOUR SUPPORT AND CONTRIBUTIONS TOWARDS

- Setting up a Vocational & Rehabilitation Centre for the needy.
- Acquiring a land to caretake and service a minimum of 200 disabled women & children.
- Building accommodation for the needy, from rural and outstation areas visiting Bangalore for hospitalisation and treatment.
- Establishing manufacturing centres to produce calipers, crutches, wheel chairs and other aids for the disabled.
- Forming a marriage counselling and matchmaking centre.
- Setting up a sports centre for the physically challenged.

The flame of your generosity will brighten up their lives in many ways.

Yes, they may seem a little different from us,

but we can dispel the darkness they live in.
